SO ORDERED:

HON. NELSON S. ROMAN
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Re: USA v. Nicholas Skulstad, 21 Cr. 309 (NSR)
 Second Letter Motion for Extension of Briefing Schedule

Dear Judge Roman:

The Court previously set a briefing schedule in this matter (ECF Doc No. 48) and defense suppression motions are due by October 10, 2022. The parties are engaged in substantive plea negotiations after my submission to the Government of the defendant's Forensic Psychiatric Report. I am cautiously optimistic the parties will reach a pretrial resolution of this case, avoiding the need for complex pretrial motions and potential hearings. I therefore write to the Court for an extension of the briefing schedule for approximately 6-8 weeks. This additional time requested will allow the parties to continue to review discovery and submissions and discuss a potential plea agreement.

The Government has no objection to this application. Should the Court grant this motion, I consent to the exclusion of Speedy Trial Time until the next pretrial conference date to be set by the Court in accordance with the new briefing schedule.

Thank you, Your Honor, for your consideration of this matter.
